A new wine to our list. When I tasted it, I know that I just had to have it! A beautiful pale green, golden colour. Crisp with an intense freshness. ## Red Wine

Continued

- Carmenere, Aromo, Chile
Soft, mellow and slightly chocolatey. Do not overlook this very tasty grape variety.
- Malbec, Aromo, Chile
Malbec, the new Merlot. It's the grape variety that is coming on leaps and bounds in flavour and style. This wine is no exception, big, bold savoury aromas. Blackberry and black cherry, warm oak, rich and ripe with a hint of tannin.
- Chianti, Toscolo, Tuscany, Italy
I just love Chianti, it is Italy in a glass. 95% Sangiovese and just 5% Cabernet Sauvignon. Rich ruby red colour with garnet highlights. Classic aromas of berry, violet and vanilla. Abundant fruit, silky texture, good body and balance makes this wine a joy.
- Rioja, Reserva, Vina Eguia, Spain
Bright cherry in colour. Displays a wide range of red fruits and spicy aromas. 12 months oak ageing in American and French barrels have turned this lovely wine into a typical classic Rioja of smoothness and style. Elegant after taste.
- Tempranillo, Masia J, Spain
Tempranillo is the grape variety used in making Rioja. This wine has some of the lovely characteristics of that very famous wine with hints of ripe soft red fruit and gentle tannins as well as a hint of oak.
- Syrah, Tierra de Castilla, Rasgon, Spain
I can barely believe the quality of this wine for the price! Ripe, Syrah fruit with some fine tannins giving the wine extra weight and just the right level of acidity to keep the wine bouncing in the mouth. Great with beef or steak. Yum!
- Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Italy
Made from 100% Montepulciano d'Abruzzo grapes grown on a hillside near the Adriatic coast. This is cherries, strawberries and herbs in a glass. Dry with a fruity variety character.
- Shiraz - Viognier, Douglas Green, South Africa
This is about as smooth a wine you can get. Lively red berry and cheery fruit with soft ripe tannins. Impressive quality and value.
- Pinot Noir Aromo, Winemakers Selection, Casablanca Valley, Chile
Bright ruby red in colour with expressive aromas of fresh raspberries and cherries. Elegant and voluptuous in flavours providing a juicy and fruity sensation in the mouth. Complex finish.
- Chateau Le Gay, Bordeaux, France
A well balanced blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc - the classic top three grape varieties of Bordeaux put together. A quality wine that punches well above its weight with hints of cassis and plums and that classic claret style and soft tannins make this a winner of a wine.
- Negroamano, 'I Muri, Puglia, Italy
Dark purple to deep black in colour. Black plums and morello cherry on the palate, the warmth of the Mediterranean come through in the mouth with a tongue coating burst of flavour.
- Primitivo 'I Muri, Puglia, Italy
From the heel of Italy this Primitivo is rich, ripe and full of fruity sunshine and robust flavour. One of the best examples around.
