Sparkling Wine

1. Prosecco Superiore Spumante, Ca'morlin, Veneto, Italy
A dry bubbly, soft, scented and grapey wine. Has delicious lightness and good length. One of the best I have ever tasted!

£5.95 £27.95

Champagne

2. Champagne Gruet, Selection Brut, Epernay France
A blend of a third each of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier. Slightly off dry and zingy, with a creamy brioche flavour. Super quality Champagne

£39.95

Blush/Rose Wine

3. Syrah Rosé, Aromo, Chile
A lovely, exciting, beautiful pale colour with a waft of summer ripe berries. Mouth-filling flavours abound.
4. Pinot Grigio Blush, Delle Venezie, Italy
Delicious, dry and crisp, yet fruity rosé with good red berry fruit and flavour

White Wine

5. Viognier, Aromo, Chile
Lychee and apricot on the nose are followed through to the palate. Drier than most. A delightful; food wine.
6. Sauvignon Blanc, Aromo, Chile
With hints of citrus and exotic fruits it has a harmonious fruity mouth filing quality, with crisp bracing acidity.
7. Chardonnay, Aromo, Chile
Medium-bodied, dry and un-oaked with a surprising level of 'zip'. Not woody.
8. Domaine de Rieux, Cotes de Gascogne, France
Another success story from Gascony. This is made from the colombarid grape variety with tons of zingy, zesty flavour. Dry style grapefruit and honeysuckle in the mouth. Very refreshing.
9. Pinot Grigio, Delle Venezie, Italy
Full of character with a good depth of flavour and a lovely mineral finish. Top quality Pinto Grigio.
10. Sauvignon Blanc, Makutu, Marlborough, New Zealand
Classic kiwi sauvignon. Gooseberry, citrus and nettles, lively and crisp. Excellent finish.
11. Alberino, Rias Baixas, Aba de Trasumia, Spain
A treat of a grape variety that you may not have heard of but you should not let that put you off. With hints of green apple, pear and white peach this fits the bill when ordering chicken, seafood or fish. A real change from other white wines.
12. Gavi, La Luciana, Piemont, Italy
Grown in the area around Gavi where the best white wines come from, this is dry, elegant with a lovely lemony after taste. Ideal on its own or super with seafood. Love it!
13. Chablis, Domaine Laroche, France
Laroche make the best quality wines from the best quality vines. Impeccable wine making makes this Chablis something special. Typical Chablis, dry, flinty, fresh with a hint of ripe tropical fruit.
14. Sancerre, Thomas Labaille, L'Authentique, France
Labaille own some of the best vineyards in Sancerre with a good proportion of old vines. Super concentration and intensity of the Sauvignon Blanc grape (definitely not in the kiwi style), balanced acidity with a lovely green edge. Sit back, sip and enjoy!
15. Tinpot Hut Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough, New Zealand
A very complex and elegant wine with intense aromas of blackcurrant mingled with passion-fruit and melon highlights. In the mouth, ripe fruits and mineral notes are abound. Classic Marlborough Sauvignon and very stylish.
16. Tinpot Hut Gruner Veltliner McKee Vineyard, Marlborough, New Zealand
Pale straw in colour, delicate aromas of orange blossom with flavours of white peach and minerals on the palate. Great balance of fruit and acidity in this dry wine. A lovely, lovely change from the norm.
17. Riesling Schier, Mosel, Germany - Wonderful Low Alcohol Wine 9.5%
Wonderfully zippy and tinglingly fresh with classic Riesling characteristics of minerals and flint. Full flavour, refreshing and only 9.5% Wow!
18. Verdejo, Duquesa de Valladolid, Rueda, Spain - Vegan/Vegetarian
Wonderful pale straw colour. On the nose tropical aromas of pineapple accompanied by white flowers. Crisp and dry with a lively balanced finish in the mouth. A beautiful change!

Red Wine

19. Cabernet Sauvignon, Aromo, Chile
Classic Cabernet Sauvignon with a minty tone over brambles and blackcurrants.

£3.80 £5.50 £7.30 £21.95

20. Merlot, Aromo, Chile
Soft on the approach with a delicious firmness through the palate.

£3.80 £5.50 £7.30 £21.95

21. Shiraz, Big Rivers, Murphy Vineyards, Australia
Punchy Shiraz on the nose with immediate drinkability in the mouth. Not too heavy, lighter style of winemaking.

£21.95

22. Carmenere, Aromo, Chile
Soft, mellow and slightly chocolatey. Do not overlook this very tasty grape variety.

£3.80 £5.50 £7.30 £21.95

23. Malbec, Aromo, Chile, Private Reserve
Malbec, the new Merlot. It's the grape variety that is coming on leaps and bounds in flavour and style. This wine is no exception, big, bold savoury aromas. Blackberry and black cherry, warm oak, rich and ripe with a hint of tannin.

£3.95 £5.95 £7.95 £23.95

24. Shiraz/Syrah Chateau Los Boldos, Traditional Reserve, Chile - Vegan/Vegetarian
A deep, dark red wine with aromas of ripe red fruits and spiced notes of black pepper. On the palate this wine is balanced and spicy with velvety tannins and a soft fruity finish.

£4.20 £6.25 £8.40 £24.95

25. Rioja, Reserva, Vina Eguia, Spain
Bright cherry in colour. Displays a wide range of red fruits and spicy aromas. 12 months oak ageing in American and French barrels have turned this lovely wine into a typical classic Rioja of smoothness and style. Elegant after taste.

£4.75 £6.75 £8.70 £25.95

26. Pinot Noir Montes, Casablanca Valley, Chile
Ruby red in colour. Very fruity aromas of raspberries, strawberries and cherries with well-integrated oak. Soft and silky tannins.

£25.95

27. Syrah, Tierra de Castilla, Rasgon, Spain
I can barely believe the quality of this wine for the price! Ripe, Syrah fruit with some fine tannins giving the wine extra weight and just the right level of acidity to keep the wine bouncing in the mouth. Great with beef or steak. Yum!

£22.95

28. Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Italy
Made from 100% Montepulciano d'Abruzzo grapes grown on a hillside near the Adriatic coast. This is cherries, strawberries and herbs in a glass. Dry with a fruity variety character.

£21.95

29. Pinot Noir Aromo, Winemakers Selection, Casablanca Valley, Chile
Bright ruby red in colour with expressive aromas of fresh raspberries and cherries. Elegant and voluptuous in flavours providing a juicy and fruity sensation in the mouth. Complex finish.

£27.50

30. Chateau Rivalere, Bordeaux, France
A well balanced blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc - the classic top three grape varieties of Bordeaux put together. A quality wine that punches well above its weight with hints of cassis and plums and that classic claret style and soft tannins make this a winner of a wine.

£24.95

31. Negroamano, 'I Muri, Puglia, Italy
Dark purple to deep black in colour. Black plums and morello cherry on the palate, the warmth of the Mediterranean come through in the mouth with a tongue coating burst of flavour.

£25.95

32. Primitivo 'I Muri, Puglia, Italy
From the heel of Italy this Primitivo is rich, ripe and full of fruity sunshine and robust flavour. One of the best examples around.

£25.95

33. Tinpot Hut Pinot Noir, Marlborough, New Zealand
I enjoyed this wine very much over lunch with Fiona Turner, the winemaker when she recently visited the pub. Intense aromas of black cherry, blackberries and plums together with savoury toasty oak characteristics complete the nose on this wine. Classic cherry and bramble on the palate make this a beautiful wine.
